

CHRISTMAS IN CLIO

The greater Clio community has joined together to offer an opportunity for low income families and seniors. The Christmas in Clio experience is designed to provide families and senior citizens with holiday support. Families with children up to age 18, if still in high school, may apply to receive assistance with gifts, food and household items from the Christmas in Clio program. Senior citizens may apply for food and household items.

Completed applications must be received prior to December 1, 2023. Children must be living in the household and listed on the application when submitted. Children may not be added at a later date.

If you have signed up with another agency, you are not eligible to apply for Christmas in Clio.
